

Michel: after his brother's death and realization that Springtrap could be alive he wanted one thing REVENGE so he tries not to take care of himself nor let anyone else do it to him he doesn't want a family he wants revenge

Michel will want to kill Springtrap for killing his brother going to the same path William Afton went to

But in the end Henry teaches him it's not right to kill your enemy for revenge because if he would he would be as bad if not worse than him

Henry: he is going to be a flat arc character
Henry realizes that like his friend William Afton Michel is going down the wrong path trying to get revenge going insane not caring about the consequences hurting other people to get what he wants when in reality he needs something else a family someone who can take care of him someone who is going to be apart of his life

Springtrap: the same villain but this time he is playing a long game he is going to upgrade himself to greater heights and tell himself trusting someone else to do your beating is the worst idea ever you have to either do the job yourself or don't do anything at all he is going to make himself stronger and faster that way he wouldn't have a weakness anymore since puppet died the only other victim he has in his mind is Henry

He started stealing parts from the parts and service room from Henry's new pizzeria he would make him suffer by killing his loved ones but first off he had to know who he cared about

Puppet: she died because even if the doors ran out of power and Springtrap escaped she couldn't because of the suit she was inside of was heavy she was still trapped inside of the suit and she melted inside of it

Fazbear's revival

Chapter one

Michel's nightmares

Michel didn't have anybody who would take care of him anymore his brother died to save him

Michel didn't know what to do anymore he was alone and frightened

The only thing he could do now is leave his home go somewhere else and get a job again, since he had the most amount of experience selling animatronics he decided to go back to Fazbear's Fright to sell whatever didn't burn in the building or rather the small animatronic parts which survived the fire

Time: 7:09 AM

Place: burnt Fazbear's fright

When Michel went back to Fazbear's Fright he realized that all of the doors were open he passed the hallway where Joe died and the thing he witnessed was bone chilling

His brother's burnt corpse and no signs of Springtrap anywhere

Michel was thinking about his brother's death over and over and over again he wanted to fight back when he was in the office and tasked to close the doors so he would survive but he's brother would burn with Springtrap he wanted to get out of there but he couldn't

When he got back to his senses he realized that Jeremy was clenching onto something he was trying to save something... Michel moved Jeremy's hands off of it and he saw a broken tracking device that he gave to Jeremy

Michel took this as an opportunity he was going to fix the device by the help of the blueprints in the abandoned pizzeria to hunt Springtrap down he thought that when Springtrap escaped Jeremy carried the device so he would find it and avenge him

Place: abandoned pizzeria

Springtrap got in the old Fazbear's pizzeria and got in the secret room

Springtrap: she got free I should have known she would tell those idiots to do SOMETHING TO STOP ME

Springtrap aggressively hit the wall he expected to deal more damage to it but it seemed like the fire hurt him so badly that he got weakened

Springtrap: at least I got something out of this experience... since Puppet is dead I only have to deal with Henry and I know exactly what makes him suffer

Springtrap looked through the window looking at the room where the scrapped parts of the original animatronics were being kept the only ones left which wasn't used to make lefty

Springtrap: I won't control him or anything like I did it to Puppet I will give him no choice but to kill people he loves

Place: Jeremy's and Michel's home

Michel packed some things like his axe food water and the device ready to go but he was too tired to go he was awake the whole night it wouldn't be bad to sleep and go after that would it?

Michel laid down on his bed and tried to sleep but he couldn't the memory of his brother's death was keeping him awake he tried to ignore them but the illusion just got stronger after couple of minutes of trying he finally slept but that only made it worse.

Michel: wha- what happened

Michel was dreaming about something he was in Fazbear's Fright but nobody seemed to be around him he seemed to be alone

Michel: hello?... is anyone here?

Michel looked around the building but nobody was there so he looked out of the window but the weird thing was the reflection in the window didn't seem like him so he went to the bathroom to see himself in a mirror

He looked in the mirror and saw... himself... twisting his neck around revealing Jeremy's face behind it Jeremy's face started burning and screaming

Jeremy: WHY DIDN'T YOU HELP ME WHY DIDN'T YOU SAVE ME WHY DID YOU RUN AWAY

Michel screamed running away but then he was stopped by non other then Springtrap himself in Nightmare form

Springtrap grew teeth all over his shoulders chest and legs
He's mouth grew larger and his eyes started glowing green
Before Michel could do anything Springtrap caught him by his neck

Springtrap: heh... I don't believe you're Jeremy's brother you are a coward who couldn't save him and if you think that you can avenge him you're dead wrong

Springtrap opened his giant mouth and bit Michel's head off

Michel woke up in fear him not even noticing that he slept
He said to himself over and over again that he wasn't going to let

His past get better of him find Springtrap and kill him but he didn't even know how he was going to.

Michel took his backpack turned off all of the electronics in his house and left the house he lived in since he was born

Fazbear's revival

Chapter two

Springtrap I will find you
